

Laboratory Systems and Public Health in Resource-Limited Settings (LAB-SPHERE)

Course contents:

Well-functioning and sustainable laboratory services are key components of strong health systems and crucial for improving public health and research capacities of countries. This is a 2-week intensive course aimed at examining the role of laboratory systems in strengthening health services and research capacity with a special focus on low and middle-income countries (LMIC).

16th to 27th September 2024

Bernhard Nocht Institute for Tropical Medicine

Hamburg, Germany

Course fee:

600 € - 1100 €

Early bird rates and reduced fees for students and citizens of LMIC

This course is accredited by tropEd

The application for LAB-SPHERE 2024 is open from 1st January until 31st May 2024

Scan the QR or click HERE for the registration form

