

Laboratory Systems and Public Health in Resource-Limited Settings (LAB-SPHERE)

15th to 26th September 2025

Bernhard Nocht Institute for Tropical Medicine, Hamburg, Germany

Well-functioning and sustainable laboratory services are key components of strong health systems and crucial for improving public health and research capacities of countries. This is a 2-week intensive course aimed at examining the role of laboratory systems in strengthening health services and research capacity with a special focus on low and middle-income countries (LMIC).

Course fee: 600 € - 1100 €

Early bird rates and reduced fees for students and citizens of LMIC

This course is accredited by tropEd

Applications are open until 31st May 2025

Scan the QR-code or click HERE for the registration form

Find more information on the course HERE or contact Daniela Fusco (fusco@bnitm.de)