

APPLICATIONS ARE OPEN UNTIL
31ST MAY 2026

Scan the QR-code
or click here to apply

14th - 25th September 2026
at BNITM, Hamburg

Well-functioning and sustainable laboratory services are key components of strong health systems and crucial for improving public health and research capacities of countries. This is a 2-week intensive course aimed at examining the role of laboratory systems in strengthening health services and research capacity with a special focus on low and middle-income countries (LMIC).

KEY INFORMATION:

Target group:

Postgrad & PhD students, postdocs, & health professionals

Language: English

Mode: Full-time and in-person

Course fee: 600 € - 1100 €*

*Early bird rates and reduced fees for students and citizens of low- and middle income countries

Selection: Based on eligibility criteria & we strive for a diverse group of participants

Certificate: Awarded to those completing at least 80 % of the course incl. assessments

Contact us via shortcourse@bnitm.de

COURSE COORDINATION:

Dr. Daniela Fusco

Head of Implementation Research Group

Visit our homepage here